FYE March 2024 Earnings Projection

- ▶ We expect raw materials and resource prices to remain high, due in part to the protracted conflict between Russia and Ukraine
- ▶ We expect the business environment to remain challenging, given inflation in many countries, consumer spending impacted negatively by tightening measures, and the suppression of economic activities
- ▶ Under these circumstances, we expect to see higher profit for the next full year due to steady growth in the automobile-related business, continued growth in the food-related business, and a recovery in profitability in our manufacturing businesses, which faced a difficult situation in the previous fiscal year
- ▶ We postponed our announcement of Medium-Term Management Plan ACE 2.0 revisions for KGIs and KPIs, originally scheduled for May, as we continue to examine details in consideration of changes in the external environment and other factors
